

Big Bloomers

Promotional Copy:

From his mobile potting shed table, gardener Hugh Bushey Babcock shares his green fingered secrets. Meet his prize winning, walking, talking flirty flowers.

With a little audience participation they use their powers of clairvoyance to deduce people's favourite vegetables, demonstrate the giant carrot chopper (mind your fingers on the guillotine – they could end up in the soup!) and miraculously raise a drooping rose from almost certain death.

“Big Bloomers” features a choice of Flowers: Daphne the beautiful Daffodil, perfect for Mother's day and Easter parades or Saskia the overly optimistic Sunflower spreading sunshine all year round. Water regularly and keep out of direct sunlight.
