Promotional Copy (Please use as much or as little as you need):

From his mobile potting shed table, gardener Hugh Bushey Babcock shares his green fingered secrets and introduces his prize winning, walking, talking psychic plant.

With a little audience participation they use their powers of clairvoyance to deduce people's favourite vegetables, demonstrate the giant carrot chopper (mind your fingers on the guillotine – they could end up in the soup!) and miraculously raise a drooping rose from almost certain death. Water regularly and keep out of direct sunlight.
